Cookie Policy

Lotus Bakeries collects data to provide you a better browsing experience, to optimize our services and to present you relevant products and/or services that connect to your interests. This data may come in the form of cookies. Below we will explain how these cookies work and how you can configure them.

Given that these cookies may contain personal data, this cookie policy must be read together with our <https://tml.biscoff.com/privacy-policy/au-en.pdf>.

What is a cookie?

A cookie is a small text file that is downloaded onto 'terminal equipment' (e.g. a computer or smartphone) when the user accesses a website. It allows the website to recognize that user's device and store some information about the user's preferences or past actions. The cookies on your computer or mobile device are managed by your web browser.

There are different types of cookies which can be used for numerous different purposes as well.

Hereafter we explain why and which cookies Lotus Bakeries uses.

Why does Lotus Bakeries use cookies?

Lotus Bakeries uses cookies primarily to optimize your user experience and to improve the performance of its website. We use these cookies to tailor our website content to your personal needs and preferences. The purpose is to enable the site to remember your preferences (such as user preferences, language, etc.) for a certain period of time. That way, you don't have to re-enter them when browsing around the site during the same visit.

In addition, we use cookies to map your browsing behavior (e.g. how you found our website or your browsing time on our website). Analytics data allow us to make improvements to our website if necessary and to meet your needs and preferences and those of other website users.

Which cookies does Lotus Bakeries use?

Lotus Bakeries does not use any cookies on this website.

Managing your preferences

All common browsers allow you to check or indicate in their settings or options which cookies you allow. If you cannot find these settings, you can consult the help function of your browser.

Your browser allows you to check and delete the cookies currently installed on your computer, and to choose not to accept them in the future.
